OVERSEAS CONSTITUENCY REPRESENTATIVE

- (i) The appointment of a UK resident Guild member on the Representatives Committee to represent the interests of overseas members is designed to overcome the difficulties of those members liaising with the Guild, and other UK and overseas members
- (ii) It also serves as evidence of the Guild's commitment to its overseas membership.
- (iii) A number of country Representatives have been initiated in various countries outside the UK and the Overseas Representative is expected to maintain and assist them.
- (iv) Internal news letters are being circulated in a number of countries. Publicity material, membership forms, and items of stationery have been issued to many of the local representatives as an aid to further recruitment.
- (v) The Overseas Constituency Representative is responsible with the Guild Treasurer on methods of subscription payment by whatever form is most convenient for the area concerned.
- (vi) The Representative is normally a member of the Representatives Committee and in addition to reporting on his activities to that committee. They report to the Regional Director in whose region they reside in the UK.
