Bring and Buy Stand

Rules and Instructions

1. It will greatly assist the smooth running of the stand if you comply with the following, and the stewards are at liberty to refuse any entries that they deem do not comply with either the spirit of the Bring and Buy stand or the rules etc. that follow.
2. Selling items on the Bring and Buy stand is a service provided only to Guild Members and each member is restricted to a maximum of 10 lots. Members will be asked to produce membership cards when booking items in.
3. Magazines, periodicals and items using mains voltage (240v) will not be accepted for sale.
4. Each item for sale must have a label securely attached, showing the lot number and the price. Labels are available on the stand.
5. The lot number is your Gauge 'O' Guild number followed by 1,2,3 etc. up to the maximum of ten. For example, if your G.O.G. number is 8616 and you wish to sell three items then the first would be 8616-1, the second 8616-2 and the third 8616-3.
6. Items for sale must be listed on this form, using a separate line for each lot, e.g. if you are selling five identical items you should specify each item separately, unless you are selling them as a job lot of five when they should be listed as a single item.
7. Please complete columns 1 and 3 overleaf for each lot. Please do not enter anything into the shaded columns overleaf as these are for Guild administrative use.
8. A display fee of £1 for each lot priced at £20 or more is payable at the time the items are booked in for sale. Please have the cash ready. The display fee is not refundable.
9. 10% of the sale price of all items sold is donated to the Guild by the member selling the goods, and will be deducted at the time the member collects his cash and any remaining unsold items.
10. Sale proceeds can be collected any time after 12.00 noon but must be collected at the latest by 4 p.m. together with any unsold items. Payment will be made by cash and/or Guild cheque at the discretion of the stewards. Uncollected items will be disposed of for the benefit of the Gauge 'O' Guild Ltd.
11. The stewards on the stand will take every reasonable care, but all items are displayed, handled and offered for sale at the owner's risk.
12. Items will be accepted for sale at the discretion of the stand manager.
13. The preferred method of payment is cash or card. Members may pay by cheque on presentation of their membership card. Cheques from non-members will only be accepted at the discretion of the stand stewards.
14. Completion of the form overleaf and offering the goods for sale is taken as acceptance of the above conditions.
